Position Overview

Sports Philosophy

At Concordia College, sport transcends the typical definition of extra-curricular activities and is embraced as a vital component of the co-curricular framework. This approach recognises sport as an essential element that enriches the curriculum and enhances the overall learning journey of students. While some extra-curricular activities can be somewhat peripheral in regard to their influence on the holistic education of a student, co-curricular activities are deeply interwoven with the curriculum, fostering growth in social, physical, and leadership competencies.

This role is central to fostering a positive and high-performing sporting environment at Concordia College. Coaches are encouraged to provide leadership and inspiration to students while upholding the school's values and commitment to excellence in sport.

Sport Coach (multiple positions)

Casual positions during sport seasons:

- Weekday mornings and/or afternoons trainings and/or matches
- Saturday morning matches

Commencing throughout 2025

Concordia College is actively seeking coaches for 2025 across Netball, Basketball, Volleyball, Football, Soccer, Tennis and Cricket.

Concordia College is seeking passionate and enthusiastic sport coaches to provide high-quality coaching and contributing to the development of the school's sporting program. Coaches are responsible for ensuring that all activities align with the College's values and vision while fostering player growth, team success, and enjoyment. Coaches report directly to the Sport Coordinator.

It is mandatory that all coaches hold a current WWCC, RRHAN-EC (Masterclass) prior to commencing a coaching role with Concordia College.

Applicants must be at least 18 years of age.
